

..New York.. Stock Market

SUGGESTS HIGHER RANGE OF PRICES

Closing of Stock Market Strong, With Unusual Snap and Vim.

FRESH DECLINES IGNORED

Safe Conclusion That Sentiment Regarding Values Has Turned for Better.

BY BROADWAY WALL.

New York, December 22.—Stocks closed strong today with a market that suggests a higher range of prices.

Disappointment was felt in the morning when the London market failed to respond to the cheerfulness that developed here on the continent.

Traders watched Stock, hoping that late afternoon would find the stock up to 150, but price on this movement, but this also was without effect on the general list.

Missouri Pacific broke to 22 1/2, a low record for twenty years, but the intent was ignored.

Western Union fell to 100, but price on this movement, but this also was without effect on the general list.

Of all the international issues, Canadian Pacific was the weakest, dropping some 1/2 point from yesterday's close.

When a stock market can absorb selling in volume and ignore fresh declines in special cases, it is a sign that sentiment regarding values has turned for the better.

Of all semi-speculative issues, leading promises possibly the greatest part in the worst thing that could happen to this country.

Directors have long been in possession of figures that give the minimum dissolution value at 32 1/2 per share for the common stock.

With the passage of the currency bill within the next few hours it is expected that the speculation in stocks will show a moderating tendency.

There were many gains from 1 1/2 to 2 points in the less active issues.
